Boy Scouts' Annual New Building Code Minstrel Show Next Passed by Council

Friday Night Big Event in Elm Hall Followed by Dance

Again you will have the pleasure of witnessing your Scouts in their annual Minstrel Show which has always greatly pleased the Community.

It has often been said of these shows given by the boys in the past five years that they were more like professional than amateur shows, because they were snappy, something doing every minute, without waiting from one act to another, good jokes, latest songs well rendered and wonderful costumes.

This year's performance promises to be better than ever owing to the fact that we have more boys, some excellent voices and a well trained chorus. The comedians, of course, get "better and better every day," as experience in past shows primes them up to high pitch.

We have added more vaudeville and one of the acts you cannot afford to miss is the black face act of the Scoutmaster, Fred C. Patton, who was a professional years ago and has not appeared before the public for twenty-three years in this role. If he is bad, you will laugh, and if he is good you will laugh, so you can't go wrong.

S. V. Fletcher, another old time actor, has consented to assist, and he left the professional stage only a few years ago when he was a star comedian and producer, you will have a rare treat.

Another act that will interest you is a sleight of hand performer who will deceive you as you have never before been deceived. He lives right here in Narberth, and his name is Paige. What page we don't know, but we do know (to paraphrase Mark Twain) that he is considerably more than a paragraph, and that he is engaged by the largest clubs and societies in Philadelphia to entertain them, so we hope that Narberth will receive him as he should be received, and fill the hall to capacity.

An interesting and educational feature will be a "spell down" of eight of the Narberth Scouts in first aid, examined by J. W. Patton, a field executive of the Montgomery Council of Boy Scouts.

We wish to state that no preparations have been made for this spell down and the questions asked of the boys will be very interesting, and will show you that our boys live up to their motto, "Be Prepared."

Petition to Pave Streets is Received

The amended building code for the Borough of Narberth was passed by Council at its regular meeting last Monday night. A number of changes in construction laws are a part of the new ordinance, and stricter rules for fire protection have been made.

The official publication of the new ordinance will be made in "Our Town" next week. It is also planned to have prepared an authoritative article, explaining the significance of the new rules, and the changes from the old ordinance.

Another forward step in the matter of road improvement was taken when residents of Forest and Woodbine avenues presented to Council a petition calling for the paving of parts of these two streets. The petition, signed by more than three-fifths of the interested property owners, requests Council to pave Woodbine avenue from Essex to Narberth, and Forest from Woodbine to the end of the present Macadam.

The cost of this improvement will be assessed against all abutting properties in proportion to their size. The petition came after a great deal of discussion by residents of that part of the Borough, some claiming that the Borough should pave the street by issuing bonds. It was pointed out by President Hall that the recent law restraining Boroughs from spending public funds for such improvements placed severe restrictions upon such a plan, and that further, the Borough was not in a financial condition to take on such a load at this time.

It has become increasingly evident that, despite the fact that the course will be unfair to a few property owners who were given a false impression when they purchased their properties, all future road improvements will have to be borne by the owners who will benefit, and that only by co-operation of those interested, in the forming of a petition, can the bad condition of many undeveloped streets be wiped out.

The petition was referred to the Committee on Highways and Sewers for action, and it is expected that early action will be taken.

The garbage contractor for the Borough was present at the meeting. Many complaints of the service have been received by council, and an explanation was asked for. The poor service, shown by Mr. Abernathy has been due to difficulty in getting new equipment. Assurance was given the members of Council that the service would be improved immediately.

The auditors of the borough have prepared an interesting balance sheet of the town finances, which, to those familiar with the general expenses of the borough, will be of great interest. The size of present liabilities show most clearly why the Borough would be unable, even if authorized by the voters, to spend a great sum of money for street improvements. The balance sheet is printed on Page 4.

DR. STECKBECK AND SUPERINTENDENT DOWNS

The next meeting of the Home and School Association will be held last Thursday in April in the School auditorium, when there will be a stereopticon address on "Flowers of Eastern Pennsylvania," given by Dr. D. Walter Steckbeck, Assistant Professor of Botany in the University of Pennsylvania, followed by a talk by Superintendent Downs, of the Lower Merion Schools, on the subject of "Co-operation Between Parents and Teachers."

TO GIVE OPERETTA

The Girl Scouts of Narberth will present on May 4, 1923, an operetta, "Cinderella in Flowerland." The performance will take place at 8:15 in the High School Auditorium. It is hoped that at this, the first public appearance of the Girl Scouts in Narberth, there will be many of their friends. Remember the date—May 4.

A. D. JONES

A. D. Jones, father of Ray Jones, Tax Collector of the Borough of Narberth, died on March 30th, after a short illness.

Mr. Jones, who was a former resident of Narberth, had in recent years made his home in Erie, Pa., where his death occurred.

Legion Show Was A Great Success

Elm Hall Packed to Hear Local Talent

The minstrel show staged by the local Legion Post last Friday night was all that could be desired. The house was packed with an enthusiastic audience and the show went off as smoothly as could be expected.

As we foretold, Clarence Long was the hit of the evening. All who heard his "golden tenor" agreed with us that it was well worth the price of admission. It is always gratifying to the publicity man to have his prognostications so ably fulfilled.

There are several things that require explaining about the show, due to the fact that the actors made them too realistic. In the first place, Frank Frez gave a wonderful rendition of the mental and physical anguish caused by an impediment in his speech during the second verse of his song, "You Tell Her Because I Stutter." It was whispered in some circles that he had forgotten his lines, but perished the thought! His second verse was a masterpiece! McKillips, too, in the local sized Gallagher and Shean left the second verse to the imagination of the audience, but he was using very effectively the well known psychologist principle that anticipation is better than realization. In answer to many queries, Bullock was acting a part when he said "Come out of the rain." A simple statement usually clears the air.

Shinn and Sparks deserve a lot of credit for staging the show and forcing the limited number of rehearsals through at top speed. Everyone has said that it was better than last year, and we expect that future performances will still further add to the laurels of our local disciples of Emmett Welsh.

There were fifteen members of the Post in the cast and each one was loaded to the brim with a collection of wit, humor and worse that put Al Jolson in the dark in more ways than one.

It is surely too bad that the capacity of Elm Hall is so limited, for it made strong men weep to see the throngs, turning disappointed from the door. The promoters of the enterprise have come to the conclusion that tickets for next year's performance will have to be distributed through advance application and by allotment, unless it is found possible to hire a big circus tent.

Dancing followed the show, and acted as a fitting wind-up to a perfect evening.

OFFICERS ELECTED FOR THE MAIN LINE LEAGUE

Bob Edgar Again President—Schedule and Rules and Regulations Adopted

Robert J. Edgar, of Narberth, was unanimously re-elected President of the Main Line League at a meeting held Monday night at Wayne. The new schedule was also adopted.

The league season will open on Saturday, May 19, when Narberth will meet Wayne at Wayne; Bryn Mawr will play at Berwyn, and Ardmore at Bala Cynwyd. A split season schedule was adopted, 10 games in each half, the first half ending with afternoon games of the Fourth of July. Narberth is at home on Memorial day, the afternoon of July 4 and the morning of Labor Day.

Rules and regulations of last year, with one or two changes, were adopted. In order that students at colleges, preparatory schools, etc., might have a chance to play in the championship series, a rule was adopted that bona fide students would only be required to play three games in the first half and five games in the second half in order to be eligible for the post-season series. All other players must participate in at least five games in each half.

William G. Ferguson was again named as chief of umpires. Bill has corralled Jack Lord and George Boone, of last year's staff, and will have Griffith after school games are over. The umpes are to be paid $10 per game. A meeting of the umpires and managers will be held before the opening of the season.

Bob Edgar was prevailed upon to stand for president, and he was unanimously re-elected. Other officers

Narberth Babies on Final Concert Of Show at Y. M. C. A. Season To Be Held Next Week

Open to Public at 3.30 p. m. Feature of Carnival

The Carnival is in full swing. Yesterday afternoon the doors of the Y. M. C. A. opened on the gayest affair ever held in Narberth. The booths decorated with blossoms held all that any heart or pocket-book could desire, and the crowd was in a fine humor.

When they found that each booth was giving away a prize, the interest became more intense. Guess the name of the Chinese doll and you get it—guess the correct weight of a ham and you get it; be the largest purchaser of a number and you get a fine garden hose. You get a number with each $1.00 purchase and the one who draws the lucky number gets a prize. Everybody's doing it.

And today at 3 P. M., the Babies, grown fat and healthy on Narberth air, will be assembled in the upstairs room of the Y. M. C. A., and at 3.30 all will be ready for the doors to open. From one hundred to one hundred and twenty-five children, all dressed in their best, and all with their best manners and smiles, will welcome you to their own show. You can't be more than 10 years to be exhibited, and if you are that old, you are required to have freckles. Guess who gets the prize for the most freckles.

The Metropolitan Life Insurance Company were so interested that they gave a $5 gold piece to go to the healthiest baby. Do you know the healthiest baby in Narberth? You can see him or her this afternoon after 3.30 P. M., at the Carnival in the Y. M. C. A.

There will be three judges to decide the awards—Dr. Lyons, of the Philadelphia Health Council, and two nurses. All for 10 cents—a close up of the cutest, prettiest, healthiest, fattest, best dressed and most freckled children in the borough of Narberth.

And finally—don't forget that in addition to the Baby Show the booths and other features, there will be a Cafeteria (a hot dinner service) this evening, and dancing with good music.

COMMUNITY CLUB TO ELECT NEW OFFICERS

Tuesday's Meeting Election and Current Events

This is the time of the year when the members of the Community Club are privileged to cast their votes to determine upon the Club officers for the ensuing year.

Next Tuesday being the second meeting in April, according to the by-laws the annual election must take place. The vote is expected to be unusually heavy.

The main speaker of the afternoon will be Mrs. George Bean. Mrs. Bean is an old friend of the Community Club, and is always heartily welcomed. Her talk will be as usual on Current Events.

Mrs. James Darville, of the Community Club, will give a resume of the recent proceedings in the State Legislature, and Mrs. T. Noel Butler will sing several songs.

ALL ON EDGE

Impatient? That's the word. They say Jim Darville is counting the next seven days, or one hundred and sixty-eight hours to the time when he can let loose that band of syncopating artists who are to furnish the pep for the next dance of the Tennis Club, Saturday, April 21st.

The same applies to John B. Wine as he has promised to transform the hall into a veritable bower of beauty. There's a reason why the John Henry Chocolate Bud has been seen outside the shops of the Philadelphia decorators this week. Ted Dold isn't saying much about his courteous, courtly Reception Committee, but when Ted gets 'em together, they are good.

And speaking of Welcome, D. R. Evans, the Club's genial, perennial President—Bill is busier than the proverbial one-armed paper hanger with the hives. All about the next dance, too. But then that's natural with Bill, likes to make 'em happy. Looks like it's going to be one of those honest to goodness, glad I came parties.

Mrs. Charles V. Noel and Mrs. O. H. Fletcher have returned from an extensive trip through Florida and the South.

Choral Society to be Heard Saturday Night

Music of a lighter and more popular character than that of past concerts will feature the Choral Society program to be presented next Saturday night.

The selections contain variety enough to please the most cosmopolitan audience, the emphasis being on the lighter music. This has been done at the request of many followers of our local musical organization.

The concert will be presented at the High School Auditorium. It will be the last Narberth appearance of the organization this season, and the support shown by our local townsfolk at this concert will indicate to the officers and director whether the people of Narberth really want the organization.

It is largely to permit a real test that this popular and difficult program has been prepared. The inclusion of several real old time favorites lends a very intimate touch to the program and incidentally gives evidence of the confidence which Clarence C. Nice, the musical director has in his organization. A director needs must feel very sure of his chorus before offering familiar pieces to an audience and we are sure that Mr. Nice's estimate of the Narberth Choral Society is not misplaced.

In spite of the many other attractions which are holding the Narberth public in suspense throughout this month a program such as the following should insure a crowded house for the Choral Society.

A Spring Song, by Ciro Pinsuti.
A Fat Little Feller wid his Mammy's Eyes, by Sheridan Gordon.

Love's Old Sweet Song, by J. L. Molloy.

Aria "Pace" from La Forza del Destino, Miss Natalina Contino.

Male Chorus: Ashes of Roses, by R. G. Cole.

A Little Close Harmony, by Geoffrey O'Hara.

Will o' the Wisp, by Jesse Winne.

I Love a Little Cottage, by Geoffrey O'Hara.

Nightfall in Granada, by L. Bueno.
Recitative and Aria "Tacea la notte placida" from Il Trovatore, Miss Contino.

Choral Fantasia from Il Trovatore, by Giuseppe Verdi, arranged by N. Clifford Page and including Recitative and Aria "D'Amor sull' ali Rosee," by Miss Natalina Contino.

This is your last chance to hear the Choral this season in Narberth, and a program worth sacrificing many other interests to hear.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE U. S. APPROVES

By John Van Ness

Those who are fortunate enough to live in Narberth at the awakening of Spring, have special cause for gratitude in the sweet harmonies rendered by the myriad voices of the beautiful songsters of the air. What a great debt we owe to the birds as well as to all animal life. It is most fitting therefore that we should all foster every effort to secure proper and humane treatment for the helpless and the suffering among these dumb friends. The American Humane Society has set apart April 9-14 as "Be kind to Animals" Week and April 15 as "Humane Sunday." This movement has the hearty endorsement of many who are eminent in the national and philanthropic world, including the President and Vice President of the U. S., Secretary Hughes, Chief Justice Taft, John J. Pershing and a host of others. President Harding's letter to the Humane Association is as follows: "I am very glad to give my endorsement to efforts for the prevention of cruelty to animals. Men have always owed so great a debt to their dumb and almost defenseless servants that it really seems strange that there should be necessity to maintain an organization for their protection. Yet we know it is necessary and I join with you in the hope that your efforts to make the work as successful as possible may be crowned with the most satisfactory results."

Warren G. Harding.

CO-OPERATION SHOWS RESULTS

Actual studies and athletics are not the only activities at Lower Merion High School this year. Through a fine form of student and faculty co-operation fostered by Professor C. B. Pennypacker, the principal, almost every student interest has been organized.

Most interesting are the "home room activities," by which each room is organized and elects officers each semester, with various committees. Each room has a meeting on Wednesday at 9:30 A. M. According to Professor Pennypacker this system is "student co-operation in action," both for the sake of the group meeting in the room and the high school.

A student council is composed of the home room leaders and the co-operation between the student council and home room activities is wonderful and is the best form of student government by placing the responsibility not alone on the faculty or the student body, but on both, making each responsible for its own share and its part in the general welfare of the school.

Another interesting feature of the life at Lower Merion is its "assembly activities." Student leaders, who are appointed by the President of the Senior Class, direct them. Programs are prepared by the "home room groups," an high school organizations once or twice a week, along with a current events exposition on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

The high school has an orchestra of twenty members, directed by William P. Nash, a member of the faculty, and another musical organization is the high school instrumental quartette, including Harold Schumann, violin, and John Rothbun, flute, students; Mr. Nash, 'cello, and H. Key Wolf, piano, members of the faculty. Miss Laura B. Staley is director of a school chorus of 50 members.

All important student organizations, especially at this time, is the Senior Dramatic Club, headed by Francis Smyth, president of the class. A committee, including Emily Landis, chairman, Catherine Bar, William Drumm, Stephen Tily and William Buskey, is preparing for the annual senior play on April 20.

There are, besides, the Sophomore Dramatic Club, Caroline Robinson, president; Charles Hamilton, vice president; Kennard Kenne, secretary and treasurer; the Junior Dramatic Club, Arthur Quinn, president; Charles Hawley, vice president; Isaiah Weintraub, secretary and treasurer, and the Freshman Dramatic Club, Mary Hamilton, president; Caroline Boyd, vice president, and Mary Payne, secretary and treasurer.

Some other clubs are the Radio Club, William Malin, president; Palmer Swartz, vice president and chief operator; and Lewis McMacken, secretary; the Science Club, headed by Palmer Swartz, as acting President; the Botany Club, of which Janet Armstrong is president, with Sara Brooke, vice president; Louise Robinson, secretary, and Modesta Miller, treasurer; the Biology Club, with Aletha Lamb as president; Eleanor Lewis, vice president; Walton Cuthbert, secretary, and Edith Bigelow, treasurer. This club gives "health talks" among its other activities.

The Welfare Club, devoting itself principally to safety propaganda at the present time, has not yet elected officers.

Professor Pennypacker is acting president of the student council, with Dorothy Cross as secretary. The Athletic Association of the school is headed by William Clear, with Folwell Seull as vice president; Frank Peabody, secretary, and Mr. Pennypacker as treasurer.

Francis Smyth is president of the Architectural Club, with Robert McKinnon, vice president, and Emily Landis, secretary and treasurer.

GREAT RUMMAGE SALE

The Main Line and Delaware County are being combed for the widest possible assortment of articles for the monster rummage sale to be held in conjunction with the Wynnewood Pony and Dog Show to be held on the Clothier and Ashton estates, Wynnewood, May 16.

Mrs. Hugh Stone, of Haverford, chairman of the rummage committee, announces that the sale will be the largest ever held in or near Philadelphia. Tens of thousands of articles will be for sale, and the grounds of the estate will be thrown open to the public to come and see and buy. Everything from a grandfather clock to pins will be for sale; an automobile will find its way to one of the booths, and all manner of valuable pieces of furniture, bric-a-brac and antiques, to say nothing of clothing, will be offered for sale. All money obtained will be turned over to the agencies in the Welfare Federation which were in debt when the Federation was started three years ago. Persons wishing to donate articles are requested to telephone or write Mrs. Stone.

Last year tens of thousands of persons came to the show. This year the crowd is expected to be doubled. The pony and dog shows will be the finest in the country and the added features will make history in out-door performances. There will be a baby show, a caporet, a balloon race, a monster dancing pavilion, card tents, fashion shows and an endless midway—a regular circus.

Mrs. William J. Clothier is chairman of the show, assisted by Mrs. Herbert L. Clark, of Overbrook, and Mrs. Alexander C. Yarnall, of Haverford. The midway committee consists of: Mrs. Edwin Bonson, chairman; Mrs. W. Boulton Dixon, Mrs. Norton Downs, Jr., Miss Elizabeth Cheston, Miss Charlotte Cheston, Mrs. Fitz-Eugene Newbold and Miss Sara Logan Starr.

A number of prominent Main Line men, interested in horses and dogs have been appointed on the advisory committee. These are Dr. Thomas G. Ashton, William J. Clothier, William S. Ellis, Victor C. Mather, J. Stanley Reeve, R. Penn Smith, and W. Hinkle Smith.

The executive committee wishes the Main Line and Delaware County residents to realize that this is "their show." Should it rain on May 16, the festivities will be postponed until the following day.

THE TOWER OF BABBLE

By Collum Righter

AN AID TO PROFANITY

Uncle Collum has the Gout. Suffers awful pain. Stays home, cannot go, about Even with a cane. He sits in any easy chair Close beside the fire. When Aunt says, "You're better, dear."

Uncle gurgles "L-r-r-r!" Both arthritic feet are wrapped All in bandage white. They hurt him so badly he Cannot sleep at night. Swearing gains an impetus Mid the throes of Gout. "H-l-s" and "D-n-s" and other things Bubble blithely out.

While we shall probably face fine and imprisonment, still we cannot altogether agree with our Hon. Flick Stites. The most important thing Montgomery County has today that it did not have one hundred years ago is us.

In connection with politeness of children toward their parents (an exciting argument concerning which was heard a few days ago) we desire to set ourself down for all time as one who, as a child never gave his seat to his father in a street car. It never bothered us to see him reaching for a strap there—but it did at home.

Why is it the fresh country eggs displayed in Haverford Avenue windows are so small? Well, the reason is obvious. You may blame it all on the eternal lust for wealth. The farmers are so doggedly anxious to make money they pick up the gobswatted things 'fore they are full grown.

Solely for the edification of The Community Library we'd have it known our favorite book is a bank book. Though even that lacks interest these days.

A friend who possesses great zeal and acumen in matters of statistics informed us at dinner 'tother night, every time we drew breath someone died. It is too bad. We did not know we were such a devastating personage. And worst of all we are unable to mend the condition any. If we'd quit drawing our breath we'd die too, wouldn't we?

And right in this same vein of thought, if a lad has a step-father that does not necessarily make him a step-ladder does it? These two important questions shall be left for the Women's C. Club to wrangle over.

The exquisite coldness of local pharmacists in face of the sufferings of their patrons is beyond human comprehension. Not so many hours before this went to print we asked Dr. Howard to give us something for our head, and bless you; additionally with telling us to try some bone yard he said he wouldn't take it as a gift.

In all solemnity we question whether much good is being accomplished by our coterie of esteemed Religious Institutions. We asked Theodora if she had her choice would she rather live, or die and go to Heaven. "Rather live, of course," came the answer. So we forthwith donned twenty-seven yards of fifty-six inch wide sack-cloth, and poured a bucket o' ashes over our dome. What are the Sunday Schools teaching children these days anyway?

We read of a citizen of Berwyn being recently killed by a revolving crane. And as our worthy editorial Boss is a charter member of Sat. Eve. Post, No. 408. Wandering Ornithological Legion of the World he will no doubt bear us out when we comment on the blood-thirstiness of American birds. After all's said and done, the one thing we know of where the supply exceeds the demand is trouble. So the only thing left to do is wear a green felt hat along with the rest of the Democratic party.

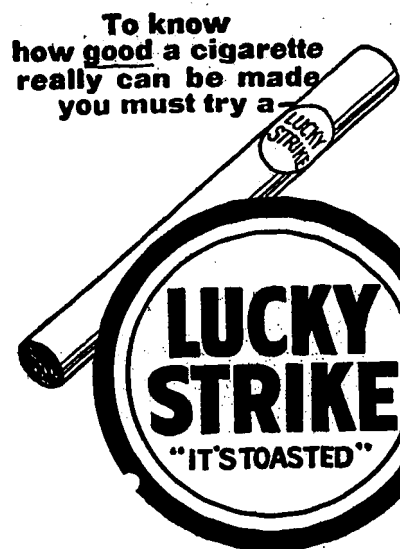

Mr. Adolph Stein, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Hugh B. Speed, of Chestnut Ave., will return to Phillips Academy in Andover, Mass., on Saturday.

John B. Wilson has returned to Colgate University.

"Very distantly," replied Thomas. "I was my mother's first child—Barney was the sixteenth."

ST. MARGARET'S MINSTRELS

Announcement is made that under no circumstances will tickets purchased from speculators be accepted for admission to either performance of Narberth-via-London on April 25 and 26, 1923. Not even Fred Walzer can change that ruling. The chief purpose in holding the price down to the small sum of one dollar is to afford the multitude the opportunity of enjoying without undue burden the most spectacular minstrel pageant of our times, and the wiles and snares of the ticket agencies should be rebuked by the public as they have been by the management. If these slick sharpers were allowed to have their way, it would probably come to pass that our local people would be deprived altogether of the great privilege which was prepared for them, and instead smart city alecks would have come out on the Narberth Tour which was said to be in prospect and which was reported to include a trip to our bounding borough on a special train, a ticket to the show and a glass of Lemon Phosphate at Howard's, all for $10. It is hoped that the Civic Association will make proper note in its records of the success which was made in thwarting this diabolical trickery and that, in recognition of the extraordinary acumen which was displayed in maintaining the good repute of our town, it will make every effort to provide Joe Kelley with a shepherd's plaid coat for his olio act, as his wife simply won't let him cut hers down. Tickets are now on sale.

Twenty-five Million Dollars' worth of New Equipment will be added to the Bell System in Pennsylvania this year

HALF a million miles of new wire, thirty-five new building operations, seventy thousand new telephones, ten million dollars' worth of central office equipment—such is our program for 1923.

And all this in addition to the tremendous amounts of new plant added in the last three years, which was more than in any six previous years in Pennsylvania's telephone history.

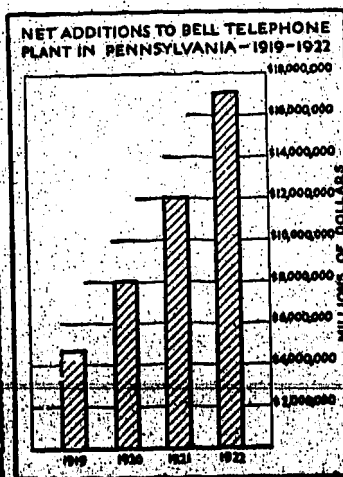

There is an enormous demand for telephone service. Twenty-five million dollars in one year is our effort to meet this demand.

OUR TOWN

SPRING IN THE CHILDREN'S CORNER OF THE COMMUNITY LIBRARY

Spring is surely coming! First you found the pussy-willows by the brook, and beneath them, under the leaves, the dull red horns of skunk-cabbage sticking up. Then you took heart to hunt for hepaticas. There was a fine plant with last year's leaves bronzed by the winter, and down in the center this year's buds curled up like kittens before their eyes are open. And now, just the last few days, they have opened their eyes, and all their blue happiness is turned up to the sun. Softly but certainly spring is coming in the woods.

It is coming in just the same way as the Children's Corner. For the new books that were blooming there all last week are not all that are to come. Four more have arrived since then, and will be ready when you read this. And seven more are still in bud at the publishers.

Lest you can't remember all that were there last week, here is a list of them:

- Arabian Nights.
(You ought to know what that means.)
- Athletes All—Camp.
(A book about athletics with many suggestions.)
- Kidnapped—Stevenson.
(Have you read Treasure Island? This is as good.)
- Boy Explorers in Borneo—Miller.
(Just out and very exciting.)
- Boy's Prescott—Banks.
(Tells the story of Mexico.)
- Boys of St. Timothy's—Pier.
(A School story.)
- Careers of Danger and Daring, Moffett.
(Tells all the thrilling things a boy might do when he grows up.)
- Children of Ancient Britain—Lamprey.
(How they lived and played just as we do.)
- Home Radio.
(Tells all about radios very simply.)
- How the World is Housed,
How the World is Clothed.
(These two go with "How the World is Fed," which we already have. They will answer lots of questions for you.)
- Japanese Fairy Book—Ozaki.
(Such fantastic Japanese fairies!)
- Little Black Sambo
(You've read it, but your little brother maybe hasn't.)
- Little Maids of Old Philadelphia.
(Tells about a little girl who lived "in town" when Philadelphia was all made of the quaint, narrow, winding streets that we call alleys now.)
- Boy's King Arthur—Lanier.
(Another King Arthur book with more stories.)
- The Modern Viking—Boyeser.
(As thrilling as any of the old Viking tales.)
- Oregon Trail—Parkman.
(Pioneering in the north-west.)
- Otto of the Silver Hand—Pyle.
(The robber-barons of the middle ages.)
- Pinochio—Callodi.
(Italian tale for younger children.)
- Sinopal the Indian Boy—Schultz.
(Sinopal is a red-skinned "real boy.")
- Sleepy Hollow—Irving.
(A fascinating legend of our own Hudson river company.)
- Travel Stories—
Retold from St. Nicholas
(Takes you storywise all over the world.)
- Two Years Before the Mast—Dana.
(A splendid sea-story.)
- Uncle Remus—Harris.
(And B'r'r Rabbit and B'r'r Possum and all.)
- Voyages of Dr. Dookittle—Lofting.
(Grown-up children will like this, too.)
- Wee Ann—Phillips.
(A charming story about a little girl.)

BOY SCOUTS FIFTH ANNUAL MINSTREL SHOW

There will also be a reel of moving pictures which always entertain, and then comes the big minstrel first part where our boys shine. The Narberth Boy Scouts have the reputation of producing the best minstrel shows in Montgomery and Delaware Counties, and if you don't believe they can, ask your neighbors or friends. If you have attended any of the previous entertainments, we are sure of your attendance.

The proceeds go to a worthy cause, that of taking the boys to their summer training camp, and it should be well patronized. There is no better training for boys, outside of the home, than the scout training they receive at Camp Delmont, where they have twenty-four professional instructors in Nature study, Athletics, Aquatics, Woodcraft and other activities required by the growing boy. The discipline there is also worthy of attention.

Those of you who find it "impossible" to come on Friday evening, April 20th, will be able to get a good night's amusement by going to Ardmore the following night, Saturday, April 21st, where the boys repeat their show at the Palace Theatre, by request. They are so well known in producing good shows that they could travel all over Montgomery and Delaware Counties and pack the houses, but, of course, during school time, that would be out of the question, so all they ask is for their own community to turn out good and strong and show them that you appreciate their efforts and want to help the scout movement along.

There will be a dance after the show, so come prepared to have a good time.

SAVE 13½% on coal

TESTS have shown that over-coating an old frame house with Portland Cement stucco effects a saving of 13½% on coal. Add to this the saving on painting expense and the continual little repairs that permanence eliminates.

Many old homes cannot be improved on for general appearance, general comfort. But permanence and upkeep saving can be added at small cost. Ask your building material dealer how.

RELICS OF THE PAST
Do you remember the old high-wheel bicycle, the horse-cars, the quaint styles of dress and other relics which were in common use within the memory of most of us? Who would want them back? Civilization in our day is going forward with smashing strides. We are proud to know that in our business we have kept fully abreast of progress and have done our share to eliminate many of the discomforts of bygone years.

THE NEW vs. THE OLD
If you were to stand one of the new gas ranges alongside of one of the earlier makes you would be surprised to note no point of similarity between them. In few lines of manufacture have greater strides been made than in the design and construction of gas ranges. The new models are marvels of convenience, cleanliness and economy.

The preference of the housewife of today is for a gas range finished throughout in white or gray enamel. Another feature which is making a striking appeal is the regulated cooking device which enables you to place the meal in the oven, set a dial, and have the cooking completed without any further attention on your part. Come in and inspect the new gas ranges.
